CONGRESSMAN JACKSON TO HOST

HEALTH CARE REFORM TOWN HALL MEETING

Washington, D.C. -- Congressman Jesse L. Jackson, Jr. announced today he will host a series of town hall meetings about health care reform during the next several weeks. The first meeting will be held in the south suburbs during Congress' July District Work Period.

Congressman Jackson stated, "Health care reform is the top priority of President Obama and the Congress. I am committed to working with my colleagues to forge an overhaul plan this year that reduces costs, extends coverage to the uninsured and improves the quality of health care in our country."
